BECAUSE LIFE'S TOO SHORT FOR SHOULD HAVES.

LETTER FROM THE CEO

As part of the Club's rebranding vision, we fostered a concept and eventual campaign, that "Life is Too Short for Should-Haves." As I discussed this idea with my team, I realized that I was the perfect case in point: I was the type of traveler who often found himself in the "should" zone. I should have spent more time with family; I should have played more, worked less. Taken more vacations. Not half-hearted trips, but the meaningful journeys — ones that positively impact your life, family, health, and longevity.

It's impressive how, as we embody a vision — be it personal or professional — it begins to manifest. Today, I've moved on from the "shoulds." I make time to slow down and authentically connect with family, colleagues, and Club Members. I traveled often over the last year for precisely the reason we came up with for this campaign — life moves fast and given what we've all encountered over the past few years, unpredictability can be a motivator for change and progress.

I've taken interesting trips. Meaningful ones anchored in connection. Because as we continue to refine and evolve the Club, I've realized life really is too short for should-haves.

My hope is that we continually help you realize the same, and in doing so, co-create memories of true connection — be it with yourself, others, or new destinations — along the way.

Travel Well. Travel Far. Travel Often.

James Henderson, Chief Executive Officer

EST. 2002

A CLUB. A COMMUNITY. A WAY OF LIFE.

At its best, luxury travel is effortless. Everything from where you stay to what you do should be arranged without lifting a finger. But for the discerning few, it's about more. More than staying in the finest locations. More than opulent welcome amenities. More than superior thread counts. These are mere table stakes. Boxes to check. For them — and for us — travel is far more personal. In fact, these relationships are what define us. Because we're a Club. And that means more than just luxury accommodations and the same five-star service offered to thousands of guests every day. It's about getting to know our Members almost as well as they know themselves.

Because travel made personal is true luxury.

Founded in 2002, Exclusive Resorts is a Members-only club designed for families who put a premium on privacy and peace of mind. We've intentionally kept our membership small — welcoming a limited number of new member families each year to preserve the multi-million-dollar residences we own while maintaining the unparalleled, personalized service we deliver.

As a Member, you can relax and reconnect in the Club's 350+ residences, often located in private resorts or residential enclaves. Away from the crowds. Your own sanctuary in the world's most coveted destinations.

Like any club, you'll pay a one-time initiation fee (starting at $175,000 for a 10-year plan) and Annual Dues based on the number of nights you'd like to travel each year. Most families opt for 20-25 travel days to access the Club's suite of members-only benefits, experiences, and residences starting at $31,900/annually.* It's simple. Predictable. And often significantly less expensive than booking comparable villas or multiple hotel rooms.

Some might say we're the best kept secret in luxury travel.

We say, we're just the smartest way to travel well.

*Club Members enjoy access to more than 300+ of the Club's multi-million-dollar residences by applying just one Plan Day per night or can reserve one of the Club's transformative once-in-a-lifetime experiences or seasonal villas in some of the world's most sought-after destinations for an additional fee. Annual Dues subject to change in accordance with Membership Agreement. Annual Dues are inclusive of certain services, benefits, and access rights. Club Membership does not provide or constitute, any investment, equity or ownership interest, or any real property interest.

“Traveling is an important part of our lives. If you’re going to do it, you might as well do it right. Joining Exclusive Resorts was the best money we’ve ever spent.

TIM W., MEMBER SINCE 2017

FIVE POINTS OF CONSIDERATION ESCAPE THE EXPECTED

01 “WOW” FACTOR

Every Exclusive Resorts residence has a sense of “wow” when you walk in the front door. This means professional, locally-inspired interiors and stunning, memorable views.

02 COVETED ADDRESS

Location, location, location — a phrase repeated for good reason. The Club embraces this mantra when selecting destinations and residences alike. We consider the area offerings, Member interest, and relation to other destinations in the Portfolio, then choose residences with easily accessible resort amenities and notable sites — from walkable beaches to mountain peak views.

03 PRIVACY IS PARAMOUNT

Our residences are always in a secure environment, often in gated, guarded communities that are near local attractions and never far from the excitement.

04 EYE ON DESIGN

We replace the furniture, fixtures, and equipment in each residence according to a strict schedule in order to maintain the appearance of every interior. From the color palette to the baseboards, we thoughtfully execute every detail.

05 COMFORT IN CONSISTENCY

We ensure each residence you stay in accommodates your family comfortably, whether having a chair at the table for everyone or spacious layouts perfect for friends traveling together. Each residence is your home away from home.

EXPERIENCE COLLECTION

Feeling intrepid? We open the door to exceptional experiences the world over. From African safaris to great American road trips, our team designs epic and immersive Members-only itineraries that are impossible to replicate.

Since its inception in 2008, when just four trips were offered, the Exclusive Resorts Experience Collection has expanded to more than 50 carefully curated group and private travel itineraries spanning the globe. To date, we've delivered more than 3,000 unique experiences. Even more impressive, however, is the Member post-trip satisfaction rating of 95 percent for more than 10 years.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a wide-brimmed straw hat with colorful stripes and a white long-sleeved shirt over a colorful bikini top, is walking on a resort patio. She is holding the hand of a young girl with blonde hair, who is wearing a striped swimsuit. They are walking towards the right side of the frame. In the background, there are palm trees and a large lounge chair with white cushions. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

“ The Exclusive Resorts team are exceptional. They ensured the trip was well-planned, perfectly executed, and an absolute blast for all of the guests. We are so happy to be part of the Club.”

OUR SERVICE

RELATIONSHIPS DEFINE US.

At Exclusive, we don't just plan vacations. We predict. Anticipate. Intuit. We get to know the way our Members and their families travel so intimately, we can craft their stay with barely a hint of direction. We expand horizons. Open doors to new adventures. Encourage friendships among Members.

“ Exclusive Resorts takes care of the little things so vacation can start when you arrive. Having all the planning in place makes travel a lot less stressful. And it’s nice when we’re traveling with friends to know the trip will meet — if not exceed — everyone’s expectations.

KIMBERLY G., MEMBER SINCE 2012

VACATION AMBASSADOR

You’ll have your own dedicated Vacation Ambassador, whose sole responsibility is to plan the vacations you want — even if you don’t know what you want, ensuring you enjoy more time with the people you love.

The Vacation Ambassador is unique and integral to the Exclusive Resorts experience — part consultant, caretaker, and coach. Curating your family’s ideal vacation experience better than anyone else, their role goes beyond travel planning, as they anticipate your needs — and those of your family, friends, and colleagues. Not just order-takers, they will inspire you to expand your horizons and try new things when you travel.

The Club currently employs more than 50 Vacation Ambassadors from its headquarters in Denver, Colorado — 20% of whom have worked at Exclusive Resorts since its inception in 2002. After completing more than 200 hours of training, each Vacation Ambassador looks after around 85 member families. We intentionally maintain this ratio to ensure they have the time to personally connect with each Member while being easily accessible, available for calls, texts, emails, and in-person meetings. As your family continues to grow and evolve — from young children to multi-generational travelers — so does the Ambassador/Member relationship.

DEDICATED ON-SITE TEAM

Every time you travel, you’ll have a dedicated on-site team to manage every detail. Need groceries? They’ll get them. A night out? They’ll book it. Want a massage? A yoga instructor? A private chef? Housekeeping? Just ask.

Exclusive Resorts remains one of the only companies in the luxury vacation club space operating residential-style communities with their own dedicated staff, including an experienced Residence Manager and Concierge team. Located on-site, they are available to Members in all Club destinations alongside a team of housekeepers, personal chefs, spa therapists, and more. Outside of ensuring every vacation is safe and seamless, our on-site experts oversee the Club’s continued investment in Portfolio upgrades and maintenance. Each year the Club allocates significant capital (>$7M annually) to update our residence portfolio — from furniture and fixture upgrades to installing more energy-efficient technology.

With Exclusive’s new mobile app, you can also check-in and check-out, order groceries, arrange activities, schedule housekeeping, and chat directly with your concierge. The app is just one of the many ways we’ve enhanced our services to meet your ever-evolving needs.
